

Comparison of Deadlines in Current Scheduling Order and Second Proposed Amended Scheduling Order

Pertinent Deadlines	Date in current scheduling order	Date in plaintiffs and plaintiff-intervenors' second proposed amended scheduling order
United States will, within one business day, notify all parties when data from each federal agency is ready for copying and distribution to parties and experts	Not included	Rolling
United States will disclose the output of database comparisons	Not included	May 30
Close of fact discovery	May 2	June 27
Plaintiffs' expert reports due	May 9	June 27
Non-expert summary judgment motions due	Not included	July 7
State's expert rebuttal reports due	June 6	July 25
Plaintiffs' reply reports due	June 30	August 4
Close of expert witness discovery	July 15	August 17
Close of de bene esse depositions	Not included	Not included
Proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law	August 7 (minute order, Jan. 3, 2014)	August 18
Dispositive and Daubert motions due	July 22	August 22 (dispositive only)
Responses to dispositive and Daubert motions due	August 4	August 29 (dispositive only)
Replies to dispositive and Daubert motions due	August 11	Not included
Joint pretrial order	August 7	August 20
Parties may pre-file direct examinations and declarations	Not included	August 27
Final pretrial conference	August 21	August 27
Trial begins	September 2	September 2